4. Purpose and Legal Basis for collecting and processing Information

Caherline National School collects and processes personal information (as listed above) about pupils and parents/guardians for a variety of purposes and relies on a number of legal grounds to do so. Caherline National School requires this information to perform our duties and responsibilities and to comply with our legal and statutory obligations. In addition, Caherline National School requires this personal information to pursue the legitimate interests of the school and our dealings with relevant third parties (see below). The legitimate interests upon which we rely is the effective operation and management of Caherline National School and managing the education and welfare needs of our pupils. Caherline National School processes personal data on the basis of the following lawful purposes:

a) Legal Obligation

Caherline National School collects and processes personal information to comply with our legal and statutory obligations, including, but not limited to those under the Education Act 1998 (as Amended), the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs (EPSEN) Act 2004, the Health Act 1947, the Children First Act 2015, the Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools 2017, the Teaching Council Acts 2001-2015 and Safety Health and Welfare at Work legislation.

b) Legitimate Interests

Caherline National School may also process personal information to:

- Enable pupils to develop to their full potential and to meet their educational, social, physical and emotional requirements
- Enable parents and guardians to be contacted in the case of emergency, school closures and to inform parents and guardians of their child's educational progress
- Secure and benefit from the support and services of relevant third parties

c) Consent

Caherline National School sometimes processes some of pupils' personal information with consent e.g. photographs which may be displayed on the school's website or on social media platforms or in the print media. Please note that consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the school in writing.

5. How personal information is collected

(i) Pupils

Caherline National School collects personal information about pupils through the enrolment process and/or through expressions of interest in relation to enrolment. Additional information is collected from third parties, including former schools and through school activities and general interaction(s) during the course of the pupil's time at Caherline National School.

(ii) Parents and Guardians

Caherline National School collects personal information about parents and guardians through the enrolment process or expressions of interest for enrolment. We collect additional personal information through general interaction during the course of the pupil's time at Caherline National School.

(iii) Information and third parties

Caherline National School may receive from, share and/or transfer information to a range of third parties such as the following:

- The Department of Education and Skills
- TUSLA (the Child and Family Agency)
- The National Council for Special Education
- National Educational Psychological Service (NEPS)
- Department of Social Protection and/or other state benefit providers
- An Garda Síochána
- School Insurance Provider
- Third Party Service Providers: We may share personal information with such providers that perform services and functions at our direction and on our behalf such as our accountants, IT service providers, printers, lawyers and other advisors, providers of security/administrative services, including data processing/cloud storage service providers

6. Data Retention

We will only retain personal information, in line with the Department of Education and Skills guidelines, for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which the information was collected, including any legal, accounting or reporting requirements.

7. Transfer of Personal Information outside the European Union

Caherline National School may transfer the personal information we collect to countries outside the EU. Where there is no adequacy decision by the European Commission in respect of any such country that means that that country is deemed not to provide an adequate level of protection for your data. However, to ensure personal information does receive an adequate level of protection we will in such circumstances put in place appropriate measures such as the use of model contractual clauses as approved by the European Commission to ensure personal information is treated by those third parties in ways that are consistent with respect to EU and Irish Laws on Data Protection.

8. Individual Rights

Individuals have several rights under GDPR which in certain circumstances are limited and/or constrained. These individual rights include the right, free of charge and subject to any limitations as may apply, to:

1. Request a copy of the personal information held about the individual
2. Rectify any inaccurate personal data held about the individual
3. Erase personal information held about the individual
4. Restrict the processing of individual personal information
5. Object to the use of individual personal information for our legitimate interests
6. Receive individual personal information in a structured commonly used and machine- readable format and to have that data transmitted to another data controller

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact us at the school as outlined below: Email: caherlinenationalschool@gmail.com

Caherline National School will endeavour to respond to your request within a month. If we are unable to deal with your request within a month we may extend this period by a further two months.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint to the Office of the Data Protection Commission.

9. Updates

This Data Protection Privacy Statement will be reviewed on a yearly basis. Such review and evaluation will take cognisance of changing information or guidelines (e.g. from the Data Protection Commissioner, Department of Education and Skills or TUSLA), legislation and feedback from parents/guardians, students, school staff and others. The statement will be revised as necessary in the light of such review and evaluation and within the framework of school planning. Any updates will be made available and, where appropriate, notified to you.

10. Reviewing and Evaluating the Data Protection Privacy Statement

This Data Protection Privacy Statement was presented to the Board of Management in September, 2020. This statement will be reviewed and evaluated on an on-going basis. On-going review and evaluation will take cognisance of changing information or guidelines (e.g. from the Data Protection Commissioner, Department of Education and Skills or TUSLA), legislation and feedback from parents/guardians, students, school staff and others. The statement will be revised as necessary in the light of such review and evaluation and within the framework of school planning.
